NEXT LPOC MEETING

Wednesday, November 29, 1989.

Steak and Ale Restaurant

24666 Northwestern Hwy. (S. of 10 Mile Rd.), 353-7448

Cocktails 6:00/Dinner 6:30

Meeting 8:00

An executive meeting was held 11/02/89 where plans for member involvement were discussed. Several proposals merit further consideration and others are already in the works. Success will require some minimal time commitments from many members, moderate time commitment from a few individuals to spearhead single projects. Information sheets on these proposals will be distributed at the restaurant prior to the meeting in order to facilitate constructive discussion. Suggestions from members present will also be considered. See you on the 29th.

MEMBERSHIP GROWTH

Many of our members and "new interesteds" have expressed a desire to participate in a Principles of Liberty or similar discussion/learning group. These are excellent opportunities to cement your understanding of libertarian principles in order to strengthen your position in discussions with individuals who lack an understanding/appreciation of freedom. There will be a sign-up sheet at the meeting for you; you may also want to sign-up a friend. One or two facilitators are needed for this and will be given the sign-up sheet in order to coordinate the groups.

Nolan charts are also an excellent device to encourage thinking and discussion with non-libertarians (or those who don't know). Tony Wright has offered an abundant supply to LPOC for anyone who wishes to distribute them, either selectively or en masse.

WELCOMING FREEDOM SEEKERS

At the suggestion of LPM V.Chair Cropsey, a collection was taken up for Soviet singers, Thomas and Tarmo Urb, who are seeking political asylum in the States. Many thanks to those who generously pledged/contributed to this specific drive. A donation of $150 was given, in the name of LPOC, by P. Hendrickson, S. Scarborough, and D. Wright, who were privileged to enjoy the Urbs' performance on November 6 after having the opportunity to meet other attendees also interested in furthering freedom.

PROUD OF '89

LPOC was re-organized and experienced some membership growth. Newsletters have been resumed, although the position of editor is open and greater regularity is desirable.

(PROUD OF '89, cont'd)

Fantastic commitment to D. Wright's school board campaign by more than 20 members indicates that we have significant manpower available to work on a coordinated campaign for a winnable race.

LPOC won first place in Clarkston's 4th of July Parade for its entry correlating the freedom fighters of 1776 and of today.

The 1st Annual LPOC Yard Sale resulted in more than $350 being deposited to our account.

MISCELLANEOUS

Dan Day (853-5169) is still collecting campaign materials that can be picked up at minimal or no cost from local municipalities. Get something for your tax dollars. Call Dan if you can help in your village, city, or township. He is also coordinating the effort to cultivate capable candidates for elections in 1990. Speak to him on the 29th or at Candidate's Night on December 1.

Prospects for Liberty in the Eastern Bloc is the topic being addressed by Peter Boettke at Mr. L. Bootleggers Saloon in Troy at 6:30pm on Monday, January 15.
