

ELECTION UPDATE--LIBERTARIAN WINS!

Dr. James Clifton won his race for the Addison Village Council on March 14. He became the first person ever to be elected in Michigan as a Libertarian. He was the highest vote getter of the five contestants in the race. News of his election appeared in the Detroit News, Detroit Free Press, Adrian Telegram and was covered on WXYT radio in Detroit. Congratulations, Jimmy!

The Ron Paul campaign is in fine form and those of us who saw him during his recent trip to Michigan were very impressed with his efforts. Over 300 people heard him speak in Dearborn at a meeting of the Justice Pro Se group. Metro-Detroit Libertarians sponsored a reception for Dr. Paul on Wednesday, February 24 at the home of Paul and Susan Lamoureux. It was a delightful evening and very productive; we presented Dr. Paul with over $1,000 raised by Metro-Detroit Libertarians to help with his campaign.

Evy Warmbier, the Ron Paul for President Michigan Coordinator, is looking for area coordinators to organize local campaign efforts for Ron Paul. These activities, such as pamphleting door-to-door, neighborhood coffees, etc., will get started this summer. If you would like to volunteer to be an area coordinator or just help out, contact Evy at 960 S. Highland, Dearborn, 48124. Phone #: 313/562-6212.

For those who would like Libertarian bumper stickers, brochures, buttons, etc., Evy Warmbier has a supply and MDL expects a shipment any day now. Please call or write the LPM headquarters for orders or information at 322 Millington Blvd, Bloomfield Hills, MI (313) 334-4449.

There will be a Campaign Workshop designed for potential Libertarian candidates, campaign managers and interested activists on April 23 and 24 at the Congress Hotel in Chicago. This workshop was developed by the Ron Paul campaign organization and will be an intensive training session by professionally trained campaigners. For more information, call the LPM office at 313/334-4449.

SUPPER CLUB NEWS

MDL Supper Club meets the third Monday night of every other month. It is coordinated by Stan Gentry. If you have questions or would like to make suggestions for speakers or locations, call him during the evening at 313/757-5085.

Over 45 people came to hear Susan Lieberman-Walker discuss her research on the psychological profile of libertarians at the January Supper Club meeting. She came to some interesting (and, to some, disturbing) conclusions. A transcript of her talk will appear in an upcoming edition of the Michigan Libertarian.

The March Supper Club featured a videotape and discussion on draft registration and conscription. We were very happy to have many new faces at that meeting and hope to see more new members at future gatherings. Everyone (friends, family, even non-libertarians) is welcome to attend the MDL Supper Club meetings. If you have never attended a Supper Club and would like to receive notices of meetings, please call Emily Salvette at 313/334-4449.

May Supper Club will meet on May 16 at the Soup Kitchen Saloon, 1585 Franklin St., Detroit (2 Blocks south. of Jefferson and just east of the RenGen). The featured speaker will be Robert Poole, editor of Reason magazine and Chairman of the Local Government Center (a privatization think tank). His topic is entitled "Mass Transit Failure - the Private Sector Alternative". Dinner will be selected from a special party menu with prices in the $9.00-$11.00 range. Because of the anticipated large turnout, reservations, menu selection and payment must be made in advance. Additional information will be mailed prior to the Supper Club date. Please call 757-5085 if you have any questions.

UPCOMING EVENTS

Monday, April 4 is election day for the Ann Arbor Five (the five Libertarian candidates for the Ann Arbor City Council). Bill Krebaum, David Raaflaub, Linda Finkle, Peter Budnick, and Julie Brockman are waging a valiant campaign with assistance from Mark Hisselman, Jeff Grund and Virginia Cropsey. The team has done a good job getting the libertarian message out to Ann Arbor voters. We wish all of them the best of luck.

Friday, April 15 is Tax Protest Day. This year's tax protest is being organized by Jim McAbee and will take place at the following locations:

6:30 P.M. to 9 P.M.

ROYAL OAK: 200 W. Second St.
DEARBORN: 3800 Greenfield

10 P.M. to Midnight

DOWNTOWN DETROIT: 1401 W. Fort St.
(Remember that the three major networks broadcast live from the Downtown office during their 11 P.M. newscasts.)

Literature and signs will be provided or you can bring your own. Call Jim at 752-4844 for more information.

May 20-22 will see the Libertarian Party of Michigan hold its Nominating Convention at the Airport Hilton Inn in Romulus. Candidates for public office will be nominated at that time. Why not consider running for office as a Libertarian? You'll find it to be an interesting and rewarding experience. All Metro-Detroit Libertarians will be receiving more information about the convention in a few weeks. Mark your calendars now--don't miss this exciting event!

LIBERTARIAN MESSAGE TO HIT LOCAL AIRWAVES

During the week of April 12, Metro-Detroit Libertarians will again sponsor five 60 second radio spots on the show "Town Meeting" hosted by Don Kostyu and heard on WCAR (1090 AM) weekdays from 10-11 AM. These spots, written by Tim O'Brien and Brian Wright, present the libertarian position on issues such as the federal reserve system, personal liberties, and taxes. They finish with our name and contact information. This should be a great way to spread the libertarian word during the tax protest week -- don't miss them.

Note: Tim O'Brien would like to use these spots in a media "blitz" during the last month before the election (the "tags" could be modified to endorse Libertarian candidates). Tim figures that about $8,000 will effectively get our message across using the major radio stations (WJR, WWJ, WXYT etc.). If you are interested in contributing to such a media campaign, contact Tim at 313/548-6857.
